

Tara Hormell
Executive Director serving Central Florida and Brevard County

Tara Hormell brings 25 years' experience working with at-risk children and families with her to the Children's Home Society of Florida. She has lived in the Central Florida for more than 17 years and is dedicated to creating solutions for the children in her community and throughout the state.

With nearly 20 years of administrative experience, Ms. Hormell keeps a serious focus on the fiscal and operational needs of the Central Florida and Brevard programs. Through her leadership, both areas are guiding child welfare, behavioral health, early childhood programs as well as community schools. Additionally, she is instrumental in community outreach, philanthropy and volunteer efforts throughout her communities.

Ms. Hormell is a current Board Member for CBC of Central Florida (ex-officio), Central Florida Cares Health Systems and has served as chair for the Council of Agency Partners for the Heart of Florida United Way, Seminole County Children's Cabinet and the Communications Sub Committee of the Seminole Children's Cabinet.

Ms. Hormell has a Master's Degree in Human Development and Family Life with an emphasis in childhood development and applied behavioral sciences from the University of Kansas.

We do good.
