

Community Partnership Schools

Children's Home Society of Florida requests support of the $2.9 million appropriation for community partnership schools, sponsored by Rep. Ingram (HB 4331) and Sen. Simmons.

What makes community partnership schools unique?

- Partnership
- Commitment
- Long-Term Success

Partnership

- 4+ core partners
- Shared governance
- Collaboration with students, parents and community leaders
- Collaboration with other social service providers and models, such as Communities in Schools

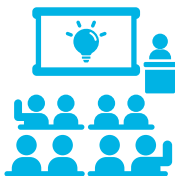

Commitment

- 25-year+ commitment
- Serve entire student population – including their families

Long-term success

- Built upon a proven model focused on long-term success
- Effectively address the greatest challenges affecting students' ability to learn and succeed:
Hunger • Poverty • Insufficient access to health care • Violence
Exposure to gangs and other crime • Lack of parental involvement
- Implement services and solutions for sustainable success
- Change futures for students, families and neighboring communities
- Prioritize long-term, sustainable results

Improved student attendance

Improved student behavior

Improved student health

Improved academic performance