

Sherri Gonzales, Regional Executive Director serving Central Florida

Sherri Gonzales brings with her more than two decades of experience in behavioral health, prevention and early childhood education, and dependency to Children's Home Society of Florida. Prior to joining CHS, she worked for the Florida Department of Children and Families, the Ruth Cooper Center and First Step, Inc.

Gonzales provides leadership, direction and supervision throughout Orange, Osceola and Seminole counties as well as Tavares, Leesburg and Ocala. Gonzales leads operations and business development, focusing on CHS' core solutions: early childhood, behavioral health, child welfare and community solutions, which includes Community Partnership Schools.

Gonzales has been with Children's Home Society for nearly 20 years and previously served for 14 years as the director of program operations in the organization's Mid-Florida region, overseeing programs in 18 counties, managing critical relationships and leading the Mid-Florida team of direct service professionals reshaping the future for Florida's most vulnerable children.

Gonzales holds a Master of Science in Psychology and Counseling from Troy State University and a Bachelor of Arts in Psychology from the University of South Florida.
