

Tracy McDade, LCSW
Regional Executive Director serving Greater Northeast Florida

Tracy McDade, LCSW brings nearly 20 years' experience in behavioral health service and leadership to Children's Home Society of Florida.

Overseeing Greater Northeast Florida Region, McDade leads operations and business development, focusing on CHS' core solutions: early childhood, behavioral health, child welfare and community solutions, which includes Community Partnership Schools.

McDade previously served as the region's associate executive director and director of program operations, where she oversaw 25 programs focused on advancing industry standards in behavioral health, child welfare, early childhood education and prevention, and community partnership schools.

McDade holds a Bachelor of Science in Human Services Counseling from the Old Dominion University and a Master of Social Work from Norfolk State University.

We do good.
