

Nacole Guyton, MA, Senior Vice President of Operations

Nacole Guyton brings nearly 15 years of experience in early learning, leadership, management, and strategic planning to CHS. As senior vice president of operations, Guyton oversees growth for the organization's evidence-based community solutions and partnerships serving the northern region from Gainesville to Pensacola and across Northeast Florida to southern Deland.

From her days as a kindergarten teacher to Executive Leadership within a variety of federal, state and local programs in Northeast Florida, Guyton remains committed to fight in the war against poverty, understanding that all children have a right to a safe and healthy life. Guyton's lifelong mission directly aligns with the CHS direction to create more safe, strong and stable homes throughout Florida.

Guyton holds a Bachelor of Science in Early Childhood Education, a Master of Education in Instructional Technology and an Educational Specialist degree in Reading Education from Georgia Southern University. She also holds an Educational Specialist degree in Higher Education and Adult Learning from Walden University.

We do good.
